

Loveliest Mother

It's the loveliest mother we're looking for. She may not be beautiful. She may be young or old. She may have grey hair or flaming auburn. She may not be in picture.

SIXTY-EIGHTH YEAR

EDMONTON, ALBERTA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 13, 1948

SIXTY-EIGHTH YEAR

PRICE 5 CENTS

Loveliest Mothers In Contest Already

First Two Entrants For Glamour Trip to Land of Make-Believe

Some mother's picture is destined to win her a glorious expense-free holiday in fabled Hollywood. The Edmonton Bulletin and Capitol Theatre will treat the loveliest Mother to the Hollywood vacation and it will be a trip that mother will remember for the rest of her life. Mother will fly both ways.

The vacation of a lifetime makes showing at the Capitol soon of the RKO movie "I Remember Mama" starring lovely Irene Dunne.

The contest to select the loveliest mother is now underway and it's open to every mother. Pictures of first two lovely mothers to enter the contest were received by The Bulletin today. They are Mrs. Lucie Timinski, of 6662 Jasper Avenue and Mrs. Mae Engerson, of 8507 83 Avenue. Mrs. Timinski is mother of four children. Mrs. Engerson has one daughter, four years old.

Not a Beauty Contest

This is no beauty contest. Age, looks or figure will not necessarily determine the winner.

The dictionary defines "lovely" as "worthy of being loved" and it is on this word, true meaning that the winner will be decided.

If mother is too bashful to send her picture to The Bulletin—the only thing necessary to enter—surely Dad or one of the kids will see she has a chance to win that glorious vacation. And the Hollywood trip is not the only worthwhile prize. There is a total of $200 in cash prizes. Second prize winner will receive $100 in cash. Third and fourth prize winners will each receive $50.

In addition, 25 additional mothers will have consolation prizes of free admission tickets to see "I Remember Mama" at the Capitol.

The contest closes at midnight of Aug. 24 and the winner will be announced on Aug. 26.

The winner will receive a TCA airliner at Edmonton airport at noon on Aug. 27, arriving in the movie capital of the world before 2 a.m. the next morning.

ALL Expenses Are Paid

The Loveliest Mother will be accompanied by a representative of The Bulletin who knows Hollywood well. There will be absolutely nothing for mother to worry about, not even money. All expenses will be paid.

There will be five never-to-be-forgotten days in the famed land of golden sunshine. Meetings with the great stars of the silver screen, visits to the studios to see pictures being made, tours of the storied night spots and all the sights along Sunset and Hollywood Boulevards are on this dream vacation itinerary.

The plane will leave for Edmonton on the morning of Sept. 2, and mother will be home still a little breathless, almost in time for supper.

Again here's a call that's necessary in entering the contest:

Just send a picture of your candidate for the loveliest Mother. "The Loveliest Mother Contest," The Edmonton Bulletin, Edmonton.

Either a portrait or snapshot will do. Name and address of the mother and the number of children must be printed on the back of the picture. Care should be taken not to send a hard with pen or pencil which might spoil the picture for reproduction.

Many of the pictures of contestants will be published in The Bulletin but publication or non-publication will not in any way be indicative of how the contestant will rate in the final judging.

Other pictures will be displayed in the lobby of the Capitol Theatre.

All entries must be postmarked on or before midnight of Aug. 24 to be eligible.

Employees of The Bulletin and Capitol Theatres and their relatives are barred from entering the contest. All other mothers are eligible.

It's the chance of a lifetime for some "lovely mother."

So get busy and send in the picture. Hollywood is beckoning The Loveliest Mother.

Export Controls Are Off Monday

By George Killeen

OTTAWA, Aug. 13.—(CP)—The government today announced removal of export controls on beef and beef cattle and opened the way for a sharp upswing in retail beef prices in Canadian butcher shops.

The controls came off Monday and mean that producers will then be free to ship beef cattle and calves to the high-paying United States market, closed to them for the last six years as a result of war measures.

The action applies to beef cattle and calves, beef and veal, dressed and other edible beef and veal products, canned foods containing meat, and meat pastes. Although it was freely predicted that beef prices would automatically advance, the reaction varied.

Packing house spokesmen here said there would be an immediate jump of 20 to 25 per cent in retail prices. At the same time, they noted that lamb prices went up when export controls on lambs came off two weeks ago but that they later leveled off.

Further Boost In Few Weeks Likely

Beef prices in Edmonton will jump 10 to 12 cents a pound almost immediately.

This was the indication among livestock men and packing-house officials following today's announcement of the lifting of the Canadian ban on cattle export to the U.S.

A further jump in two or three weeks is a possibility. Eastern Canada estimates today stated that retail beef prices will shoot up 30 to 35 per cent. Local cattlemen declined to speculate on just how much beef will rise in price during the next few weeks.

IMMEDIATE RISE — But they did admit that at almost immediate rates of 10 to 15 cents per pound on most grades of beef will be felt by Edmonton consumers.

Discouraging handling and shipping charges, it will mean that Edmonton livestock men will see their cattle rise by five or six cents a pound, in the competition with U.S. markets.

Since only 50 per cent of a head of livestock can be turned into meat, with the other 50 per cent uneatable, the 5 or 6 per cent will double by the time it reaches the consumer.

In Edmonton, this means a 10 or 12 cent a pound jump in beef prices.

ALL-TIME HIGH — In May, livestock prices rose sharply to an all-time high. Latest expected price jump will mean that beef prices here will be as high or higher than in this century.

Cattle dealers told The Bulletin today that this price increase will mean that beef prices here will be as high or higher than in this century.

Cost of Living In City Up

Edmonton's cost of living index soared to 151.2 on July 2, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics in Ottawa.

The index moved from 149 on June 1 to the present figure, for a gain of 2.2 points.

Highest in more than 18 years was registered in Vancouver where the index soared 49 points to 190.2.

Smallest increase was in Saskatoon where the index reached 156.4, a gain of 12 points from the second lowest total in the Dominion.

But Edmonton's index may gain some consolation from the fact that only two of Canada's major cities live more cheaply. They are Winnipeg (150.3) and Halifax (151.1).

The Edmonton index stood nearly 20 points lower last year on July 2 at 132.

The increase, evident throughout the country, has been attributed to sharply increased prices in food and moderate increases in prices of clothing, home-furnishings and services.

Overall Dominion index stood at 150.7 on July 2, as compared to 151.1 on June 1, and 154.8 on July 2, 1947.

Bread, Pastry Prices Due For Increase Here

Edmonton householders may face an increase in bread and pastry prices if baking costs continue to rise. It was learned today. Although no immediate boost in local bread prices is forecast the continuing spiral of bakers' expenses was termed as "alarming," by heads of city baking firms today.

Bread prices in Winnipeg were raised one cent per loaf, Thursday. A ten-cent increase in cake prices was also forecast for the Winnipeg area.

RISING COSTS — Rising costs of ingredients including wheat, sugar and eggs may force an increase in the Edmonton area. Alberta Bakers' Association officials stated today.

Wholesale costs have risen 33 cents per pound since 1941 and retail prices have followed suit, said the association. Recent boost in egg prices and the high cost of sugar and substitutes kept bread cake rates at a high level, they said.

Additional costs were seen this week when the price of wheat was raised an overall increase of 9 per cent on wheat, according to the association.

July when bakery workers were granted an overall increase of 9 per cent on wages, according to the association.

WAX PAPER GOING UP — Paper wrapping is due for a boost in price this October, officials said.

Optimistic note was sounded by one bakery official who stated that bread prices are not likely to rise if the present volume of sales continues.

Last increase in bread prices for 1947 when cost per loaf was upped to 12 cents.

1 Lost Plane Found; Have Clue to Second

One of two aircraft, missing in northern Alberta and the Northwest Territories, has been found.

One, missing since early in the week, and believed to have three persons aboard, was found today in the vicinity of Bathurst Inlet on the shores of the Arctic Ocean.

A second, missing on a flight from Edmonton to Grande Prairie last Saturday, is still unaccounted for, but a clue to its disappearance is now being investigated.

ALL REPORTED SAFE — Search planes hunting for the aircraft last week Bathurst Inlet since early in the week have found the missing plane, all safe, according to a report received at the Canadian Air Command headquarters today.

Dispatch came from Enrie Boffa, CFA pilot, who had been searching for the missing plane since Wednesday morning. It gave no information other than that the occupants were safe.

The plane was piloted by Bud Hemmick and carried a U.S. war man pilot named Margaret O'Donoghue. It is believed it may be new being investigated.

MAKING INVESTIGATION — Meanwhile, a report of a light aircraft missing last Saturday is being investigated. It is believed it may be new being investigated.

Some city prices of the difference cattle prices is given in these figures:

To date, choice steers are selling here at $2.50 per hundred pounds while the Chicago market of Aug. 2 gave the price a 50-cent per hundred-pound increase for American steers.

One factor which must be considered is that American cattle are better grade, corn fed.

In Edmonton, good cows sell at $12.50 per hundredweight, while in Chicago they sell at $24.50.

Because of the high price difference, "A lot of Alberta ranchers have been waiting for the lifting of the embargo," one livestock man told The Bulletin.

Soviet Aide Sees Injured Teacher

strong police detail has guarded the room since Mrs. Kosenkova was taken to hospital yesterday after her leap.

Police had quoted her then as saying she did not wish to "see any one from the Russian consulate."

IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Dr. Grant P. Penney, her physician, said she is in "serious but not critical condition." He estimated that she will be a patient in the hospital for 12 weeks and that she will be several months after that before the will be fully recovered.

Mrs. Kosenkova rejected her suggestion of the vice-consul that she be moved to another hospital, saying "You kept me a prisoner, you would not let me go."

Mrs. Kosenkova, pawn in a cloak-and-dagger struggle between Communist and anti-Communist Russians, suffered internal injuries, a fractured right leg, a possible fracture was placed on the critical list at midnight.

Mrs. Kosenkova apparently made clear to police that she had jumped deliberately and that she had been held in the consulate against her will.

Yakov Lomakin, the Soviet consul-general who led a group of Russian officials on a self-styled "rescue" of the woman last Saturday from a White-Russian anti-Communist camp, vigorously denied that he was a prisoner in the consulate.

TENSION GROWS

Vice-Consul Zolt I. Chepurukh said "the whole incident is being taken to the highest level as the dramatic leap heightened United States-Russian tension against the background of alleged espionage."

Mrs. Kosenkova summoned Vladimir Zentsov, an anti-Communist White-Russian friend, to her bedside last night, and he quoted her as saying:

"I was struggling to break out. I was like a bird in a cage. I had to get out."

The vice-consul and a secretary tried last night to send Mrs. Kosenkova a note which read: "Dear Stepanovna, I would like to know how you feel. Do you need anything? We hope you are all right. We took all the necessary steps to have you cured. We wish to see you."

In view of the patient's attitude the Russians were told to come back with the note this morning.

Mrs. Kosenkova was guarded by two policemen in her room, six detectives on the floor and six patrolmen and a sergeant at the hospital entrance.

White Russians have stated that if the public carries the boycott to a great enough extent, meat prices will have to fall.

"It's a question of supply and demand," said one city packing house manager.

Liberals $100,000,000 on Roads

We propose to spend $100,000,000 in the next five years for roads. Twenty-five million dollars to be used for the construction of "market" roads to serve your rural communities. The remainder $75,000,000 is to be spent to provide permanent all-weather main highways which will stand up under all kinds of weather and traffic conditions. We will spend $5,000,000 each year, out of current revenue, on rural roads. This is more than twice as much as the present government is spending. And we will keep on spending at least this much each year until rural areas are adequately served by decent roads. The kind of road we expect to build on the main highways will be permanent highways—roads which will last for at least 30 years. We will borrow the money to build them and will pay for them as we use them over a period of 30 years. The cost per year for interest charges will be $1,500,000. The cost per year to retire principal will be $5,750,000, making a total annual payment of $7,250,000. Out

Social Credit—10 Steps Forward

Ten forward steps in five fruitful years. There is a sentence in the Social Credit manifesto—and the reason why Alberta's citizens will give Premier Manning a mandate on August 17th and ensure continued progress under their Social Credit administration. Albertans are proud of the fact that over the past 13 years their Province has made the most spectacular gains in Canada. They know, too, that much of the credit for this progress is due to the Government they first elected in 1935 to carry out needed reforms. Through the years, in the face of opposition from those who wanted Alberta to pursue a different course, the Social Credit Government has

CCF—Social Security

Which is the party that has fought most consistently both in the federal and provincial fields to keep price ceilings, to prevent the freight rate increase, to improve social welfare and health services, to prevent alienation of our resources to foreign monopolies, and to improve living standards? The CCF. The CCF believes in full employment and social security—Social Credit is opposed to these things. Here is what Social Credit, the National Social Credit, said in the House of Commons on February 28, 1947: "It is my belief, and the belief of those in this group in the House, that any time the Government is not able to achieve a more consistent and effective full employment, social security or a planned economy, that Government is going straight down the road to slavery of the people. The CCF fought to retain price ceilings and the excess profits tax. Social Credit is opposed to the Social Credit convention in Calgary in November, 1947, stated (as reported in the Calgary Herald, 28th November, 1947): "Social Credit is strongly opposed to any form of price control." It is the CCF's policy to support the CCF in campaigning for a province-wide prepaid hospitalization plan to cover every resident of the province; for universal automobile insurance at an annual cost of not more than $5 or $6 per year; for a new Trade Union Act and a new Labour Relations Act; to encourage the rapid settlement of industrial strikes and disputes; for a provincially owned provincial power system; for the payment by the province of 50% of the cost of education, to relieve some of the burden of the municipal taxpayers; and for the improvement of the province's roads and highways. It is the CCF's policy to oppose in principle, control, full employment and social security, so it is opposed to the constructive proposals of the CCF in Alberta. As far as the CCF is concerned, it is these constructive proposals which are the issues in this election.

Ind.—Province Before Party

I wish to make it perfectly plain at the outset that those of us in the Independent Movement do not object to political parties even though our own movement is non-partisan to this extent—that we do not admit either the necessity or the advisability of maintaining a provincial political registration similar to that which exists in the dominion field. Our attitude towards political parties may be summed up in three words: "Province before Party." It has often been said, and with a good deal of truth, that the provincial legislature is simply an enlarged municipal government. To defend this view, I have pointed out the similarity of the "taxed" profit system. Today big business and its corporate monopolies are concerned almost entirely with national and international affairs. Because of this important difference which exists between the two since we have Liberal, Conservative, CCF, and Social Credit parties in the dominion house, we must have their counterpart in Alberta.

L.P. Social Credit Must Go

The record of the Social Credit government in one of our largest towns of all the best interests of Alberta and its people. After 13 years in office it has become the creature of the same evil forces it promised to fight—the big banks, corporations and monopolies. Today it openly defends the "taxed" profit system. Today big business and its corporate monopolies are concerned almost entirely with national and international affairs. Because of this important difference which exists between the two since we have Liberal, Conservative, CCF, and Social Credit parties in the dominion house, we must have their counterpart in Alberta.

Ex-Roosevelt Aide Denies Spy Link

Canada-Born Lauchlin Currie Testifies Before Committee

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Lauchlin Currie, Canadian-born former assistant to President Roosevelt, denied today that he was connected in any way with a Communist spy ring in the United States. The day-after Currie told the House of Representatives an American anti-Communist committee that Elizabeth T. Bentley's story linking him to a spy ring was "hearsay three times removed." Miss Bentley, who says she was a courier for the Communists, had testified that he was told Currie once informed a member of the ring that the United States was about to decipher a Russian code. While no one ever accused him of being a Communist, the soft-spoken Currie, a native of Bridgeville, N.Y., testified "I am not and never have been a Communist member of the Communist party, a believer in the tenets or doctrines of Communism." "I have never been affiliated with any organization or group sympathetic with the doctrines of Communism or engaged in furthering that cause. I have never had any reason to believe that my friends or mine or even acquaintances or associates were Communists." Miss Bentley had said she did not think Currie was a Communist, but that he was helpful to the Soviet espionage group in the government.

CIVILIZATION NOT ONLY GRAND BUT HELPS HEALTH

NORWAY HOUSE, Man., Aug. 13.—(CPI)—Indians at the northern Manitoba outpost have decided that not only is civilization grand, it's also healthful. They've taken to sleeping on air mattresses and are finding it much healthier than lying in a blanket on the hard ground. The reason? "They've discarded the pumps supplied to inflate the mattresses and every night have a family ritual of blowing up the mattresses by lung power. Medical officers are reported pleased with the resultant chest expansion."

Pickets Protest U.K. Palestine Stand

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—(AP)—A dozen pickets were stationed outside Macy's department store last night in what they termed a protest to the sale of British goods. The pickets said they were members of the Sons of Liberty Boycott Committee, running a series of demonstrations urging boycott of British-made goods, in retaliation for Britain's Palestine policy.

Basis of Agreement In Opera Dispute Believed Reached

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Representatives of the Metropolitan Opera Association and 17 unions expressed hope last night for "a basis of agreement" on the 1948-49 season. The association previously announced plans to cancel the season, saying it could not meet union demands because the opera had a deficit of more than $200,000 last season.

Last night's joint statement said officers of the association had agreed to call a special meeting of the board of directors early next week.

Officials of the Central Canada Exhibition, which opens here Aug. 23, have designated Tuesday, Aug. 24, as "Newfoundland Day" and have invited Newfoundland to send representatives to the fair.

BRIDGE

This Bidding Will Cause Argument

By William E. McKenney
Do you and your bridge-playing friends like to argue over a proper bid or discard? If you do, you will like today's hand, which caused a great deal of argument at the Mayfair bridge club in New York. First of all, we will look at the bidding. West bid one heart, and North made a very light double. Actually he had no values for the double. East jumped to three hearts and South went to four spades.

Should West have doubled? It certainly felt that he would make a spade trick, a heart and a club.

and his partner had given him a bid. The question was, what should West discard? Should he discard the ace of hearts? It was agreed that if East had held the king of hearts, his proper discard would have been the seven of hearts. Actually, however, East discarded the five of clubs, and West, reading this as a small club, did not lead a club.

West decided that the discard of the small club confirmed that East held the king of hearts, so at this point he underled his ace of hearts, allowing South to win the trick with the king. Then South made the whole hand.

It was argued that West should have read the discard of the five of clubs as high club, especially with dummy holding the nine-eight-seven. The West player in the case said that if East had discarded the seven of hearts, he would have played a club, although it is doubtful that a doubler would lead away from the king of hearts. If he had read the five of clubs as a come-on card, he could have led a club safely and East would have returned a heart, and the contract would have been defeated.

Western Powers to Seek Interview With Stalin

LONDON, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Representatives of the three western powers in Moscow are expected to bring the long-drawn-out discussions in Moscow to a head by asking shortly for a further interview with Prime Minister Stalin, diplomatic observers here said today.

The foreign office has continued its news blackout on the progress of the talks but it was learned that Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, British military governor in Germany, will fly to London from Berlin to advise on the technical aspects of the Moscow talks as far as they concern the situation in Berlin itself.

The United States ambassador, Lewis W. Douglas, and French ambassador Rene Masgali called at the foreign office today, soon after the report on yesterday's meeting with Molotov had been received, to study the dispatch together with Sir William Strang, British representative on the three-power Berlin emergency committee.

Diplomatic observers thought Sir Brian's summons to London was an indication that the Berlin currency problem was the main subject of their deliberations and possibly also of last night's talks at the Kremlin.

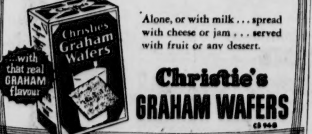

The western powers have stated that they are willing to accept the Soviet mark as sole currency in East Berlin.

NOT TOMATOES—JUST POTATO SEED PODS

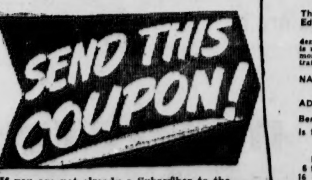

REGINA, Aug. 13.—(CP)—A horticulturist stepped in yesterday to douse a potato-tomato controversy.

After a report from Nelson, B.C., that a gardener had found six small but well formed tomatoes hanging from one of his potato vines, Regina gardeners in numbers began reporting the same thing. But W. H. Horner, field crops commissioner for the Saskatchewan government, turned an official eye on the proceedings and said the tomatoes were really potato seed pods.

"Most persons never see the potato seed because of frost," he disclosed, "But it would indicate to the uninitiated a small green tomato."

U.S. Wheat Sells Below Gov't Floor

Efforts to Hold Up Price Hit by Lack of Storage

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Despite generally increasing prices, wheat in selling today below the government's theoretical "floor" in most parts of the United States. Efforts to hold up the price have bogged down under the weight of heavy sales and lack of storage room.

Recent support efforts have included increases in scheduled exports for September, an official statement that the crop years' export goal will be raised above original intentions, and a campaign by the agriculture department to get producers to hold wheat on farms.

But the price of wheat continues below the "support level."

The government supports wheat mainly through a loan, based upon 90 percent of parity. Loans at various terminals now are in effect.

STORAGE IS KEY
Prices of wheat supported compared with the government loan for the grade of wheat in which the price is quoted were:

Terminal	Price	Loan
Chicago	$2.25 1/2	$2.38
Kansas City	$2.12-2 1/8	$2.23
Minneapolis	$2.18 1/2-2 1/4	$2.23

Major cause for the slump of wheat below the loan, grain men said, appeared to be inability to obtain storage room. To get the loan, wheat must be stored to meet government specifications.

With storage space filled, some wheat had to be dumped on the market.

Government officials have asserted the support program was needed to assure the farmer there would be no price collapse similar to that following the first world war.

NO LIVESTOCK COST
Meanwhile, President Truman said little hope for a drop in the general cost of living as he prepared to act on the Republican inflation bill.

The expectation in Washington was that Truman would sign the credit-curbing bill passed by the special session of Congress which refused to give him the price-wage controls and rationing authority as asked.

Feathered Friends Warned by Bea

I'd just like to take this last chance to warn all wild ducks, geese, pheasants, deer, moose, rabbit and any other fine-feathered friends of the wilderness.

The warning is against budget-craved housewives.

With the lifting of the embargo on beef shipments in the immediate offing, things look grim at the meat counter.

So grim that prices will be in all probability take another turn for the worse, as if they weren't bad enough now.

By September, new prices should be in effect.

By September, hunters and housewives will share the fruit in quest of game to feed their poor families over the winter months.

This year, we must have a most opportune time to have a deep freeze locker, leased wouldn't it?

Every family has its own deer house.

This means there must always be a piece of cleaver hanging in the house, for man or mouse.

One way of keeping a large wedge of cheese is to wrap it in a cloth wrung out in vinegar, diluted of course, and store it in a cool place.

Young Sonny Jim isn't too particular to his milk, says his worried mother.

Helpful Aunt Susan suggests adding a spot of molasses to it, which she says will make the milk more digestible.

Actress Penny Edwards finds milk a delightful food. If you are allergic to it, you might try substituting buttermilk.

WHY GROW OLD

Allergies Must Be Watched When Dieting

By Josephine Lowman

Those of us who have to watch our weight enjoy thin girls and women who can eat like workhounds and never rise a bulge.

Many women who keep their weight down to beautiful proportions train like jockeys, and few of us can be careless about our food intake or stop exercising without unpleasant physical results.

In other words, the general pattern for most women past 35 is not an adequate diet, but one that is somewhat Spartan that it does not include heavy rich foods and does not include between-meal refreshments.

Nevertheless, the slim woman also has her problems. Recently I gave some advice to the thin girls who read my column. In dieting for a gain in weight or for a loss, individual physical traits and allergies must be considered.

If a certain food on a reducing or gain diet disagrees with you, then you will have to substitute another food which is in the same beneficial food and has similar qualities. You must also be sure that the substitute food contains about the same number of calories.

For instance, if you are allergic to milk, you might try substituting buttermilk. If you are allergic to eggs, you might try substituting egg whites.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Baby Will Enjoy Air-Bath After Nap

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

The preliminary to a long night's sleep may be a cross, wakeful period. This comes about after the baby has just wakened himself to some sort of regular schedule and is taking his third meal around two p.m.

After this meal he may be wakeful and then take a catnap near three p.m. and from four to six o'clock he is often at loose ends and fretful.

This is a good time to give the baby a chance to exercise himself in the middle. Presumably, the weather will be warm. He can be diverted of wrinkled, damp clothes and put on a wide bed with a well-resistant cover under him. No matter how young he will revel in the freedom from clothes and the ability to wave his arms and legs freely, to dig his heels into the bed and scold backward, even to roll over on his stomach. He will not get stuck there and have to be put on his back again.

Eventually, he will discover his hands and hands them in the air and study them as if they were playthings. Curiously about them may lead him to bring them closer and closer to his eyes and maybe right into his hands. Hands are delightful mysteries to the young baby.

And he can spend endless moments gazing at them.

When his mother tired of exercising him he may be spanned off quickly, powdered lightly and put into his night gown, and be ready for his night meal. Even if it is not quite time for his meal he should be pleasantly fatigued so that he will sleep quietly until his "dinner" is ready.

Our latest No. 38 "Sleeping Habits" may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Store-Wide Clearance Sale

Don't be timid about walking through a store wearing the dress that you intend to buy, you also want to get accessories that go with it.

Some stores may not encourage you to leave the fitting room and make a tour of accessory counters.

But no store is apt to stop you from taking a walk which may be profitable for it and invaluable in its finding the right accessories.

Here, you should try on that dress in which you hope to be smartly turned out for spring in the time when you are in the military department a serious visit.

Many a girl which you think matches a dress color under artificial light turns out to be a mismatch when the two are teamed in the street.

The same thing goes for shoes and socks. If you're not sure you can make a color-match or a good color-combination, it's better to be safe than sorry.

Of course, if a store frowns at such a practice, there's an alternative which will prove to be as useful.

WEDDING OF INTEREST to Edmontonians took place recently in Montreal when Dr. and Mrs. James Hearty Wallace were married. The bride was Frances Ellen Brickman, older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Clark, St. Paul, Minn. Dr. Wallace is the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Wallace, Wainwright.

Midsummer Wedding At Metropolitan Church

For a recent midsummer wedding in Edmonton, Metropolitan United Church was decorated with baskets of sweet peas, gladioli and fern. The bride was Frances Ellen Brickman, older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brickman of Edmonton and the bridegroom was Walter Scott Courser, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Courser of Ponoka.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Christie of Ponoka.

Bowlers List New Winners

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose white crepe for her wedding gown which featured a tiered skirt and full bloom sleeves. Her floor-length veil of silk embroidered net was held in place by a tiara of hand-made flowers.

Her shower bouquet was of pink roses, white sweet peas and lilies and she wore for her only jewelry a cameo pendant, gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Jean Brickman was her sister maid-of-honor. Mrs. J. G. Clark, older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Clark, St. Paul, Minn., was bridesmaid.

Attendants were in pink, aqua and mauve, respectively. The bridesmaids were styled with pulled-up curls and ruffled neckties. They wore chapel veils and lace mitts and carried Colonial bouquets of summer flowers.

Victor Courser, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushered were James Brickman and Thomas Butterfield.

Mrs. J. V. Dodds was organist and soloist. A. Davidson sang a Promise Me.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brickman chose a rose crepe dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. Mrs. Courser chose a dress of figured jersey with green accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception for 75 guests was held following the ceremony. A four-tier wedding cake centred the bride's table which was decorated with flowers and tapers.

Mr. James Brickman was toast master and Mr. Christie proposed the bride to the bride.

Soloists at the reception were Mr. Davidson and Miss Jean Brickman.

The couple left later for Banff and Jasper and will live at Ponoka. For travelling the bride wore a green tweed suit with brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

'KISSIN' JIM' TO QUIT POLITICS

COLUMBUS, Ga., Aug. 12.—(AP)—Governor James Folsom of Alabama said yesterday he is quitting politics and will step down as governor in January, 1951.

The reclusive married governor, famed in the past as "Big Jim" and "Kissin' Jim," said he would return to the insurance business.

"I don't want to grow old and be a broken-down politician," the 46-year-old Folsom said. "I want to get the politician's box out of me while I still am young."

Harper Prosser, Alberta Liberal Leader, will host a Saturday 11:00 a.m. CFRN

Sloppy Canning Causes Waste, Time, Money

It doesn't need experience to be a good canner. Preserving fruits, vegetables, making jams, jellies and pickles isn't a matter of good luck or mystic rite.

It is mainly a case of saving correct directions and following them. The best canning bulletins are put out by both the federal and provincial departments of agriculture.

These bulletins are written by trained home economists who receive them yearly. They tell you how to achieve the best results of both taste and nutrition. Having to throw out twelve jars of fruit or discard a jar of pickles is heart-breaking when you think of the cost of materials, the labor involved and the cost of replacement.

1. Use good reliable recipes. 2. Plan your canning so that it doesn't coincide with too many other jobs. Hurry jam or pickles are strict.

3. Watch your rubber rings that they are not synthetic rubber. It tastes your fruit, etc.

4. Be sure you like the product you intend to can and use it. 5. Can only high quality fruits and vegetables. Obtain a bargain at the market isn't a bargain if it is canned.

6. Watch your paraffin wax. If it is misused it is better to use fresh wax.

7. Labeling preserves with name and date means less waste of year old products.

8. Watch that salt doesn't get under screw tops as they are hard to remove for later use.

Blanche Bishop To Attend London Meet

TORONTO, Aug. 12.—(CP)—The nurse in industry today has more to do than just attend to the cuts and lacerations of workers which used to take up all her predecessors' time not so many years ago.

So says Blanche Bishop, chief nurse at a large confectionery factory here. She is one of three Canadian delegates—and the only Canadian woman—who will attend the International Congress of Industrial Medicine in London, next month.

Miss Bishop said one of the industrial health nurse's main object functions is to help workers deal with good health—a positive attitude towards health.

Miss Bishop was educated in Medicine Hat, Alta., and was graduated from the Ontario hospital here in 1927. She worked in a Chicago clinic then returned to Toronto in 1928 to take a public health diploma at the University of Toronto.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Bishop was a maid-of-honor were a dress of pink taffeta and June Kolick as bridesmaid a dress of blue taffeta. Both carried bouquets of red and pink carnations and were matching flowers in their hair.

William Ewanick was best man and ushers were Mike Matishak and Stan Matishak.

Soloist at the ceremony was Sonia Phillips.

WEDDING BELLS rang recently for Mr. and Mrs. John Matishak who were married in a double-ring ceremony at St. Joseph's Church. Bride is the former Olga Bondarevich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Bondarevich of Edmonton.

Olga Bondarevich Weds John Edwards Matishak

Amid a setting of pink and white peonies in St. Joseph's Church recently the Rev. Father S. S. Kurijo solemnized the marriage of Olga Bondarevich and John Edwards Matishak.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Bondarevich and the bridegroom son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Matishak.

White brocaded satin was chosen by the bride who was given in marriage by her father. The dress was fashioned with a drop-shoulder and high neckline.

Her veil was held to her head with a corsage of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations. A gold chain, gift of the bridegroom, was her only jewelry.

Kathleen Majeau Wed At Sacred Heart Church

Gladioli decorated Sacred Heart Church for the recent wedding of Kathleen Alma Majeau and Richard Louis Newton. The Rt. Rev. Mag. M. J. O'Gorman performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert E. Majeau and the bridegroom son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Newton, all of Edmonton.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a dress of white taffeta. It was fashioned with a small lace collar, pearl buttons down the bodice, lily point sleeves and a full skirt.

A coronet of orange blossoms held her floor-length veil to her head and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white gladioli.

Mrs. E. Majeau, as maid-of-honor, wore a dress of turquoise blue taffeta complemented with lace mittens. She wore flowers in her hair and carried a bouquet of gladioli and bachelor buttons.

As bridesmaids, Frances Newton wore a dress of mauve taffeta and Nora Newton a dress of yellow taffeta. Both wore mittens. Flowers in their hair and carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

William Majeau was best man and ushers were Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Newton.

Soloist at the wedding was Ellen Marshbank.

At a reception at the Corona hotel Mrs. Majeau received the guests wearing a plain colored crepe with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Newton chose a blue-grey crepe dress complemented with white accessories and a pink rose corsage.

Set in a lace cloth the bride's table was centred with a tiered wedding cake embedded in tulle and flanked by white tapers. Mrs. O'Gorman proposed the toast to the bride.

For a honeymoon trip to West Africa and Portugal the bride travelled in a dusty rose gabardine suit, brown bouffant and accessories and a corsage of Sweetheart roses.

Later the couple will take up residence in Edmonton.

West Is Excluded From Danube Rule

Russia and Satellites Rebuff United States and Britain

BELGRADE, Aug. 13.—(Reuters)—The Danube Conference today excluded Britain, France and the United States from participation in the future Danube navigation control body.

The general committee of the 11-power conference accepted by seven votes to three article five of the Soviet draft convention limiting the future Danube commission to one member each from the Soviet Union, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, the Ukraine and Czechoslovakia.

Austria will be able to join after the peace treaty with her is signed. The committee also rejected by the same vote a United States amendment for immediate participation of the western powers.

and Austria in the commission. The amendment urged participation by Germany after the signing of the peace treaty or earlier if generally agreed.

This rebuff to the west today made it unlikely, observers thought, that Britain, France and the United States would sign the convention when it is completed.

Andrei V. Vishinsky, Soviet delegate and Anna Pauker, Romanian delegate, were not present at today's session. Mme. Pauker returned to Bucharest last night.
